

It's News Here!

Blood Bank at Grayling High School May 13th

There will be an American Red Cross Blood Bank in the gymnasium of Grayling High School on Tuesday, May 13th, from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m.

The Bank will be named and served by Grayling High School students under the general direction of Mr. Mike Wieland, Biology Instructor. American Red Cross Staff Nurses will, of course, do the drawing and other professional functions, assisted by Crawford County Chapter Red Cross Nurse Volunteers; but, the registration of Donors, the bottle labelling, the canteen, the walkers and other Volunteer functions will be accomplished by Grayling High School Students.

The Bank will be open to all of the Good Neighbor Donors of the County from Noon until 3 p.m., but, if any non-high school Donor cannot wait until noon, they are most welcome to come to the Bank any time after 9 a.m.

And, Chet Johnson, Manager of Crawford County Transportation Service assures us that Dial-A-Ride will transport all Donors who call 348-5409 to and from the High School without charge, as a public service to the community.

The Grayling High Schoolers are very enthused about this Bank and interest has been heightened by the adoption of the new American Red Cross Courses in CPR-BLS (Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation/Basic Life Support) and Standard First Aid and Personal Safety as requirements for graduation.

Blood continues to be in very short supply throughout Michigan because of the continued and extensive layoffs in the auto industry and related suppliers which has reduced normal blood drawing by over 10%.

So, please, you wonderful Blood Donors of Crawford County, come to the High School on Tuesday May 13th and give the gift that only you can give to your fellow man—a pint of your life saving blood!

Grayling Guardsmen Start Encampment Saturday

An exposure to 12-hour shifts will highlight activity during the second week of encampment for Grayling Guardsmen who will spend from May 10th to the 24th in training duty.

Over 280 of the local group of 315 will engage in camp assignment this year, explained Col. J.R. Lippert, Camp Commander. The 1438 Engineering Detachment will have 58 in training, 140 will represent the 1071st Heavy Maintenance Company and 70 Camp Grayling Headquarters personnel will be involved.

Col. Lippert indicated the group's work activity will generally center around preparation of camp facilities for the upcoming summer encampment season.

The 12-hour work shifts will be utilized this year, Lippert said, to familiarize Guardsmen with the type of scheduled employment in circumstances requiring full Army mobilization.

May is Morel Mushroom Month

May is the month for morel mushroom hunting in Michigan. While morels are among the most easily identified edible mushrooms, hunters are advised to use extreme caution. Beginners are urged to make their first several hunts with someone experienced and to equip themselves with a mushroom guide book.

True morels of the Genus Morchella are distinguishable from false (dangerous or poisonous) morels in that all Morchella have caps that are pitted with little hollows. False morels may be ridged, wrinkled, or waved, but in any case do not have hole-like pits. The best Morchella species are also characterized by cone-shaped caps connected at the base to a hollow stem. No break occurs between the cap and stem as it does in false morels.

Some rules to follow when hunting for morels are: 1) Pick only one kind at a time. If you must pick more than one, keep each kind separate. 2) Eat only one variety at a time. Test each kind by eating only half a cap at first. Even good mushrooms contain substances to which some people are violently allergic. 3) Eat only fresh young, tender mushrooms free from obvious damage.

The best morel hunting areas in Crawford County include Frederic, Beaver Creek, Mancelona Rd., and M-144. Some good places to look are in old orchards, near a dead or dying tree, or in a field.

O.K. Preliminary Budget Board To Ask for 17.90 School Millage Renewal

by Joe Schrader

Voters will be asked to approve a millage proposal representing a renewal of 17.90 mills in the Annual School Election scheduled for Monday, June 9, 1980. That was the decision reached Monday night at a special meeting of the school board where members approved a preliminary budget proposal of $3,723,289 for operation of Crawford AuSable Schools for fiscal year beginning July 1, 1980.

Approval of the preliminary figures was necessary now so the budget can go to the County Tax Allocation Board. The past three years, 7.1 mills has been allocated for school operation and school officials are hopeful the figure will be raised this year, at least to the 7.5 mill level it was in 1976. School Supt. Dr. William Dieckrich said on Monday that schools must seek an increase this year from the Board, pointing to nearby Roscommon and Houghton Lake where school systems get 8.6 mills. "Generally speaking, schools get tax dollars in the 8-9 mill bracket," Dieckrich said. One mill represents about $119,000. The Tax Allocation Board is currently in session, deciding how to carve up the 15 mills between the local governmental bodies and schools.

The budget approved Monday night is up about 10% over 1979-See Millage on Page 11

Outstanding Senior Citizen

Ingeborg Leslie was crowned "1980 Outstanding Senior Citizen" at the May 2, RSVP Recognition Dinner held at the Holiday Inn.

Each year the Senior Citizens themselves vote for the Senior Citizen who they feel is the most outstanding.

The 1979 winner was Angela Kirkum who crowned Mrs. Leslie. 1978's winner was Loretta Barnes. Amy Gothro the 1977 winner and Mattie Lowe winner in 1976. Age is not a factor to be considered for the winner, but each lady has been 80 or over when elected. A real tribute to a beautiful age and to beautiful people. They are not only older but better too.

Ingeborg will reign at all Senior Citizen activities during May, Senior Citizen Month and until the 1981 Outstanding Senior is chosen next April.

Congratulations Ingeborg. A wonderful lady who is always willing to help everyone and everywhere whenever needed. We salute you!

PRESENTS PROCLAMATION—Mayor Gordon "Sandy" Thompson last week presented Sister Mary Hilda, R.S.M., Mercy Hospital Administrator, with this proclamation, naming the week of May 11th through 17th, 1980, as "HOSPITAL WEEK" in Grayling. (Joe Schrader photo)

To Observe National Hospital Week May 11-17

Meeting the health needs of a community takes teamwork. That thought is reflected in this year's National Hospital Week theme, "We're America's Health Team."

Characterizing hospitals as a health team seems an accurate comparison. The hospital team needs the coordinated efforts of many individuals with diverse training and skills in order to reach its goal of high quality health care.

But, the concept of the health team extends beyond the physical limits of the hospital and its primary role of providing direct patient care. In this broader sense, the hospital can be viewed as a leading member of the community health team that includes other health care and human service organizations, businesses, industries, government agencies, and ultimately each individual citizen.

On this expanded team, the hospital works with others in assessing the community's health needs and in identifying the best ways to meet them. New services, programs, or facilities may be needed. Changes may be required in existing ones. The system must be flexible to meet the needs of a changing community.

It would be easy to stop there, to place the entire responsibility for community health on readily identified institutions. But realistically, success in meeting community needs depends to a great extent on the CANCER KICKOFF LUNCHEON—Crawford County American Cancer Society crusaders, guests and award winners are shown here immediately following the group's Kickoff Luncheon held May 1st at the Holiday Inn. On May 1st, 71 volunteers attended a kick-off luncheon, sponsored by the Grayling State Bank, to launch the 1980 Crawford County American Cancer Society Crusade. The goal for the county has been set at $9,000. Marie Ellingboe, Crusade Chairman, received an award on behalf of all the volunteers for attaining the 1979 campaign goal.

Each year, 5, 10 and 15 year service awards are presented to county crusade volunteers. Recipients of awards this year were, five years—Bea Berry, Judy Kapets, Lois Bender, Karen Casler, Francis Fick, Sally McNamara and Mrs. Duane Nimke. Ten year awards went to Roe Billsby, Elaine Harland, Nancy DeWitt and Mrs. Clyde Borchers. Fifteen year pins were earned by Josephine Kersch and Fern Duncan. Evelyn Garland, who was unable to attend, was given special recognition for her 35 years of service to the local unit.

Thursday's program was presented by Mr. Jack Witter, Public Relations Director for Mercy Hospital who discussed the soon-to-be completed hospital expansion program. His presentation included slides of the original hospital facilities founded in 1910.

Of special interest to those attending was the fact that the hospital has ultra-sound equipment available now and plans to add mammography facilities in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Cherven have returned to Grayling from New Smyrna Beach, Florida, where they spent the last three months.

Mr. and Mrs. LaDarin Sherwood returned home on Monday, April 28, after spending six months in Scottsdale, Arizona. They took trips to California, Mexico and Las Vegas during the winter. Leaving Scottsdale on April 7, they traveled to Florida to visit relatives and friends and before returning to Grayling, they visited their children in Flint, Bay City and Midland.

Mr. and Mrs. Thane Hender shot have returned home after spending three and one half months at their home in Englewood, Fla. Her mother, Mrs. Vivian Peterson, spent the winter with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick DuBois flew to Denver, Colo. for a week to join the rest of Dick's family for an 80th birthday celebration for his aunt, Mrs. Dorothy McClain. They were guests of Dick's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stone. Other guests were Dick's brother, Jack DuBois of Grosse Pointe, another brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Al DuBois of Phoenix, and Mrs. McClain's husband, Oliver McClain.

Tom Hatfield and family visited his parents over the weekend. Tom and his son, T.J. did some trout fishing.

"marker" by shooting craps with $1000 as his stake against each man's "soul" or, at least, his promise to visit the Salvation Army mission around the corner, thus preventing the "soul-saving parlor" from being closed as a failure.

Also recounted in "Guys and Dolls" are the sentimentally hard-boiled stories of several other of the Times Square rogues, no-goods, deadbeats and other flyblown pettifoggers who first became known to the world through the tender but also hilarious stories about them by the late Damon Runyon.

Among them are Nathan Detroit, harassed operator of the city's oldest established floating crap-game, driven near distraction by the hostility of the police, the unwillingness of garages to house his dice-game without an exorbitant fee, and by his girl Adelaide, whose patience is wearing understandably thin after 14 years of being engaged to him without getting "that plain little old band of gold." Still others from the Runyon album to be met in the show are Nicely-Nicely Johnson, Harry the Horse, Benny Southstreet and Big Jule from Chicago, who violates gambling etiquette by "interpolating mid-west dice" in a New York crap game.

The Characters and stories of Damon Runyon were made into what the N.Y. Times called "a vibrantly perfect" musical comedy by Jo Swerling and Abe Burrows. Both the music and lyrics of the songs are by Frank Loesser, whose numerous other great song hits have included "Baby, It's Cold Outside," "Two Sleepy People," "Once in Love With Amy" and "Heart and Soul." Some of the greatest hits of his career are found in "Guys and Dolls."

Todd Duncley has the role of the slick braggart of a big-time gambler, who sings "My Time of Day," "I've Never Been in Love Before" and "Luck, Be a Lady." Sue Frause in the role of the winsome Salvation Army girl who falls in love with him will be singing "If I Were A Bell," "I'll Know (When My Love Comes Along)," and joins Shannon McNamara in the duet "Marry the Man Today."

In addition to that duet, Miss McNamara as the engagement weary fiancée suffering from a permanent psychosomatic cold (out of "a feeling she's growing too old") sings the famous "Adelaide's Lament, the satiric night-club scene numbers "I Love You a Bushel and a Peck," and "Take Back Your Mink."

Tim Taylor as the harried dice-game entrepreneur, will beat his weary, worried breast in "Sue Me!" (What Can You Do Me?) and join Scott Duncley and George Morse in the "Oldest Established" which expresses part of the show's theme of little touts and tipsters working out their bets on making a four the hard way.

Others in the cast will be Scott Duncley as Nicely-Nicely, leading the sinners in their confessions and pledges to reform in the Save-a-Soul Salvation mission, with his "Sit Down, You're Rockin' the Boat" number, and Steve Allen, Rob Kesteloot, John Watkins and Paula Dosch.

District Court

The following appeared before Judge Francis L. Walsh in 83rd District Court last week:

Robert Leroy Beene, 43, Frederic, demanded preliminary examination on a charge of assault with intent to do great bodily harm. The 12-day period was waived and a $15,000 cash/surety bond set.

Vincent Stephan Assemany, 21, Bloomfield Hills, pled guilty to a charge of impaired driving and was fined $255 or 14 days in jail.

Patricia Johann Wilson, 18, Grayling, demanded preliminary examination on two counts of breaking and entering an occupied dwelling. The 12-day period was waived and a $3,000 personal bond was set.

HOOKS BEAUTY—The AuSable Mainstream proved to be the place to be for Ron Gildner, son of William & Irene of Grayling. Ron hooked onto this 19 3/4" brookie the first week of trout season.

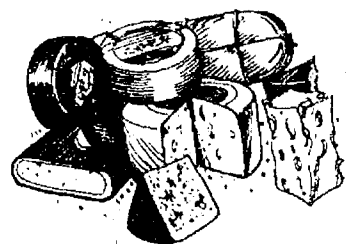

GOOD FISHIN'—Curly LaMotte of Grayling hooked this 24 1/2" beauty while fishing last week on the Manistee. This brown topped the scales at over 6 pounds. Like a "true-blue" angler, he declined to reveal the exact location of his catch. (Joe Schrader photo)

From Our Corner ...

Spring fever caught a hold of the ol fella these past few days and as a result we find our self sitting here staring at the typewriter trying to figure what kind of smarts we can pass your way in this week's corner...

We thought possibly we would get some remarks back from last week's endeavor...but no calls or letters...so far that is.

We will have to rely on a few tid-bits this week...

For one, WGRY, can stop their energy promotion to get your fuel bill paid...we received our call Monday morning, they can end it right now...we don't expect to win the top prize, but understand we will receive a coffee mug to commemorate WGRY...right now we're trying to figure a way to paint the Avalanche over the name...how about that Pete...

Everyone chuckled when Mac McPherson drew the Filly Genuine Risk for the Kentucky Derby that took last place Saturday, only one other filly had won the race for the roses...Mac had the last laugh as he scooped up the spoils at the Timber Room Lounge...

Last week we took a tour of Mercy Hospital's new expansion courtesy of Jack Witter...the second floor is just about ready to be moved into, while there is quite a bit of work yet to be done over all...when it is finished it will be a facility that Grayling and the area can well be proud of with the expansion of services that will be done here instead of a patient having to be transferred to Traverse, Ann Arbor and other hospitals. These are the kind of trips we like to make to the hospital...

We have attended a couple meetings set up by Dr. William Diedrich to explain the school budget to citizens of the community...the budget is only in a preliminary stage and nothing can be concrete until the final meeting of the tax allocation board sets the millage for the county governments...

Speaking of the tax allocation board...the county voters decided four years ago to have a set allocation for three years for the different governmental groups, this way each year they knew exactly how many mills they had to work with...this ran out this year.

Our suggestion is to put it back on the ballot this fall and have the term indefinite...until there is a valid reason to change...this would help all government groups who have to make up a budget each year...

This about does it for the ol fella...we have a guest below...we had planned on heading for our back yard but, just heard the temperature has dropped from 84 down to 54...guess we'll have to turn up the thermometer tonight...

GUEST EDITORIAL

Michigan My Michigan

Michigan Week 1980 is coming up fast-May 17-24 are the 8 big days. Since this is a turn-of-the-decade Michigan Week and the 27th annual event, it behooves us to pause and give a moment's thought to the overall idea.

Michigan is the only state whose citizens hold an observance of this size and proportion. Michigan Week is many things. It is joining a clean-up project for Community Pride Day, visiting our schools on Education Day, or extending a friendly handshake on Hospitality Day. Michigan Week is a program which comes from the heart.

Michigan Week means that we're proud of Michigan, that we want to do all that we can to keep our state moving ahead. Michigan Week is taking pride in our city, our town, our community, our neighborhood—our own particular portion of Michigan—as well as being proud of the beauty and strength of our two giant peninsulas.

Pride and responsibility go hand in hand. We take responsibility for supporting our community and our state, because we are proud of both and want their continued well-being. Michigan Week provides every community, regardless of size, an opportunity to take inventory of its assets, to express pride in the community and to start new projects for community betterment.

Michigan Week means far more than parades and celebrations—they're the finishing touches, the icing on the cake. Most of all, Michigan Week means caring about our neighbors and about our neighborhood, both the immediate area in which we live and the larger neighborhood which we call Michigan.

Middle School Advisory Board Meets

The Middle School Advisory Committee met last Tuesday evening, April 30th to further discuss its study regarding the future of Grayling's intermediate school.

Another meeting was scheduled for this week to review additional data including preparation of a format for presentation of its findings to the school board.

Also planned is a discussion of a report expected from a board subcommittee regarding the possibility of housing Crawford County students in three buildings instead of four (including Frederic). Lorna Morse, Russ Hubbard and Dr. William Diedrich make up this sub-group.

Meanwhile Diedrich and Asst. Supt. Paul Lerg will be preparing information for review by the committee on the financial implications remodeling of the Middle School or building anew would have on the community and its residents.

23 Years Ago May 9, 1957

About 80 acres of cut-over jack pine were burned Wednesday, May 1, when a tree falling across the power line on the Mc-Master Bridge road broke the wire. Fires started all along a distance of about 75 feet, making it impossible for the crew of pulp cutters at the scene to control the blaze.

The fire rapidly spread in the slashings left from pulp-cutting previously done. The flames broke out about 300 feet down the road from the Jack Bates home, which was burned out about two years ago. Some 30 men, conservation officers, prison labor, and seven high school students, with two tractor plow units and a pumper and plow unit, were rushed to the scene. The fire burned four hours before being brought under control. The burned area lies in Section 22, T27R1 west, with a small acreage in Section 28.

This week's issue of Sports Illustrated magazine carries a four page story complete with four pictures on this past winter's elephant hunt in Africa with a Bear Archery Company bow and arrows made in Grayling.

The article is written by William Negley of San Antonio, Texas who won a $10,000 bet by killing a bull elephant with bow and arrow. Negley who is director of natural history for the Witte Museum in San Antonio had decided on a trip to Africa to bag an elephant or two for the new proposed African Hall to be added to the museum. For a long time he had been intrigued with the idea of hunting an elephant with a bow and arrow and in a discussion with William K. Carpenter, the bet arose. The money won by Negley was donated to the museum.

Charles Douglas will start for a new home in Cincinnati, Ohio this week, to be followed by the family after the close of the school year. We could select several families in the county whom we would rather spare, but will send them our best wishes for future prosperity.

The Avalanche—Your Want Ad Paper

Strolling Around Town

By Fay Rovee

Pictured are members of the Gildner family who got into the spirit of the clean-up, paint-up, fix-up campaign in Grayling and turned out on Sunday afternoon, about 20 of them, to completely paint the outside of the Joe Gildner home on State St. It could have been a 56th wedding anniversary present as they had celebrated that the previous Sunday.

Other projects underway at this time is the repainting of the back wall of the Grayling Mercantile—it looks interesting at this point.

Nene's Nook has moved into the old Avalanche building, and Bob West is hard at work on the side of the building putting in what appears to be an outside or open-air cafe. A sign next door proclaims the fact that Johan's Pastries are moving in. Across the street there is the sound of hammers and construction next to Milltown Gifts.

My pet project—clean sidewalks—Charlie Gierke has found at least six more inches of sidewalk after edging it. Jim Kolka also on Maple Street has removed some unsightly bushes and the Mike Flenings are reroofing the former T.P. Peterson home into which they are moving. Toc Ockerman across the corner is still remodeling.

Lots of improvements—keep it up Grayling.

Trees Are Available

Stock is in for landowners interested in reforestation, wildlife habitat, hedgerows, windbreaks, Christmas trees, and planting for erosion control, stabilization and/or beautification at a very low cost.

These one to three year-old 5-10 inch seedlings are available in Red, White and Scotch Pine and Blue, Norway and White Spruce. Also, available, is a wildlife shrub (autumn olive).

Orders are accepted on a first-come, first-served basis; so call or stop at the Crawford-Roscommon Soil Conservation District office (409 Lake Street, Roscommon) today during the hours of 8:00 and 2:00 p.m. weekdays, or phone 275-5231.

New Games

Festival May 17

It's time to mark your calendars for Grayling's first annual New Games Festival on May 17th at Bear Mountain (Hanson Hills). The festivities start promptly at 10:00 a.m. and run to approximately 4:00 p.m.

What's New Games, you ask? Well, it's volleyball or soccer with a 6 foot earthball, tug o' war over a mud puddle, or how about hug tag?

In fact, New Games is any game that's exciting and enjoyable but requires no real athletic ability. New Games is for everyone, and is based on participation, not spectatorship. No winners or losers, just a lot of fun. When a game is fun for everyone, we all win together.

Our hope is to create new perspectives on how to work and live with other people.

Bring your grubby clothes, your spirit of adventure and your sense of humor to Bear Mountain on Saturday May 17th. This is a supervised day of fun with NO ADMISSION CHARGE. Come on out and enjoy.

Eagles Auxiliary

Eagles Auxiliary will hold an important meeting May 8th at 8 p.m. election of officers for the coming year.

Deloris Bellanger, Sec'y

"Make sure your car insurance protects you in 'no-fault' states."

"If you're planning on a long trip by car, chances are, you'll be driving through states with 'no-fault' insurance laws.

"If you're covered by an Auto-Owners policy, you can relax. Auto-Owners provides protection automatically under its bodily injury and property damage liability coverage in 'no-fault' states.

"This kind of far-sighted protection is just one of the reasons we recommend Auto-Owners Insurance to the people we serve."

Auto-Owners Insurance is for auto owners, too.

They say, that dream house exists somewhere for everyone—to locate it is all you have to do. Someone may be dreaming of YOUR home, if only you could find him or her. Well, that's where the experienced real estate salesperson steps in. We're professionals in the MATCHMAKING between househunters and the homes for sale.

Househunters count on us to be aware of what's available in the area. Certainly, they could check the newspaper ads, or use up their gas looking for "For Sale" signs. But they come to see us to economize on time and energy. They trust we will only show them houses that comply with their needs and their money situation.

Homeowners count on us to qualify prospects. We don't bring potential buyers who are "just looking." We don't bring people who just need more house or less house. We don't bring people who don't have an appropriate down payment or those who may not meet the requirements for a mortgage. The prospects we show your home are "qualified" and to a certain extent—pre-sold.

RSVP Project

To help the community in the area of basic Human Needs; We as a volunteer program need more information as to how this can be done.

Starting the first of May RSVP volunteers will be involved with a community needs assessment for Senior Citizens. Volunteers will be visiting all residents of Crawford County to fill out a questionnaire on each Senior Citizen. Your cooperation in answering these questions will be greatly appreciated.

The Crawford County Commission on Aging has numerous services that are available for each Senior Citizen and at this time volunteers will assist you with more information. Please welcome the RSVP volunteers as this is a very worthwhile project.

Par For The Course

By Fay Bovee

The Monday Night League will hold their organizational meeting on Monday, May 12 at 7 p.m. According to Sharon Klinger, president, there will be a sign-up sheet at the club for those wishing to golf that day, either before the meeting or afterward. You do not need to be a member of the club to join the group, you may pay greens fees for the evenings you play. Anyone wishing information, may call Sharon.

Pictured are the Bud Sidwells and Harold Klingensmiths enjoying the opening night party held at the Grayling Country Club on Saturday, May 3. Spring flowers and umbrellas brightened the clubhouse for the dinner and dancing party. Following the cocktail hour, a prime rib dinner catered by the Grayling House was served and topped off with some mouth-watering desserts prepared by the wives of the board of directors of the club. About sixty members enjoyed the dinner and an evening of dancing and visiting. Several door prizes were awarded some lucky people by the chairmen of the affair, Ray Lange and Dale Nielson. They are to be complimented on a very nice party.

Of special interest is the road-paving fund which has begun with the hopes that some work may be started in the fall. Proceeds from the pool table and games will go toward the fund and there will be some raffles held during the summer. Donations toward the fund will also be gladly accepted by the board of directors.

Senior Citizen Homemaker Service

The Homemakers' Service is still in need of Volunteers. It takes a very special person to be a Homemaker Volunteer, because you are working with very special people. When you meet and work with these people you will find that you receive a wealth of unique experience from our greatest Natural Resource, our Senior Citizens.

You can volunteer 2 hours a week or more, whatever your busy summer schedule will handle. I will try to schedule you near your home, possibly with neighbors you already know. There are many of these Senior Citizens that are Homebound, due to temporary conditions, such as, illness, injury, arthritis or other handicaps. The Volunteer will receive $1.50 per hour, which cannot be counted as wages, and 18¢ cents per mile. The Volunteer is not allowed to provide any personal services, such as bathing, shampooing or physically assisting the client in any way, but there are many very necessary homemaking chores to be done.

You need only be 60 years of age or older and have a health problem that prevents you from doing these homemaking chores. There is no charge for this service, however, if you can afford to pay, we do accept donations. This allows us to do more services for more people.

If you or you know of someone who needs our Homemaker Services, please call the Senior Citizens Center (348-9314) for more information.

Volunteers Are Special

During the Kindergarten Round-Up held this year for the Frederic and Grayling Elementary Schools, several Volunteer Aides were involved. Shown here is Janice Bidwell helping a mother register her child. The Volunteer Aides helped with developmental testing done by C.O.O.R. in conjunction with preschool vision and hearing testing mandated by the State of Michigan. Approximately 100 preschoolers were tested during the 3 day round-up.

Volunteers included Doris Birtcher, Greta Moore, Nancy Kortes, Darlene Jensen, Merideth Mitchell, Janice Bidwell, Mary Phelps, and Gayla Lord.

The testing was supervised by Jeanie Sloan, Crawford AuSable School Nurse.

For further information about the Volunteer Aide Program contact Cheryl LaDuke at 348-7641 ext. 52.

To Offer Baby Sitting Class

The Parish of Saint Francis' Episcopal Church is pleased to announce that it will be sponsoring a Baby Sitting Class, offered as a community service and at no charge to participants. It will be open to all students 12 years of age or older and will consist of 4 sessions, the first of which will be held on Thursday, May 15th.

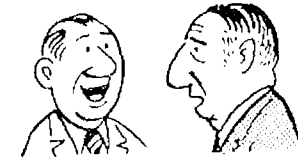

Mr. Tony Doremire, EMT Instructor, will speak on May 15, discussing emergency and first aid. Mrs. Colleen VanNuck, R.N., a Child Care Nurse employed at Mercy Hospital, will offer basic Child Care on May 22nd, and Undersheriff Joe White will speak on Fire and Safety on May 29th. The last session on June 5th will be a discussion by a panel of 4 mothers who have children of an age requiring a Baby-Sitter.

The classes will be held at Saint Francis' Episcopal Church beginning at 7:00 p.m. and will last approximately one hour. Since this is not a licensed program, the student may not be endorsed by the church as a babysitter. However, if all four classes are attended, the student will have his name and phone number published in the Avalanche, stating that he has attended all classes. It is felt that with this kind of exposure, the student will have a real chance at some Baby Sitting jobs.

Anyone interested is asked to pre-register by phoning one of the following people: Laura Dawson, 348-5000; Carmel Harrington, 348-2080; or Judy Woodland, 348-5574.

Again, the classes will begin on Thursday, May 15th at 7:00 p.m. at Saint Francis' Episcopal Church, and will run for four consecutive Thursdays. Don't miss this opportunity!

Senior Power Day May 14th

Thirty Eight senior citizens from Crawford County will be traveling to Lansing May 14 for the sixth annual Senior Power Day. In all, some 6000 senior citizens from all over Michigan are expected to fill the Lansing Civic Center for the day-long event.

The day has become a traditional and colorful rally at which Michigan's older citizens demonstrate their solidarity and strength and present a platform of concerns to the Governor and legislative leaders.

"We always run out of tickets," says Robert Murray, chair of the Senior Power Day Steering Committee. "If the Civic Center could hold 10,000 persons, we would have 10,000 here."

Tickets have been allocated on a population basis throughout the state.

Presentation of the Senior Power Day Platform will be a highlight of the day, with responses from Gov. Milliken, House Speaker Bobby Crim and Senate Majority Leader William Faust.

In addition, the keynote speaker will be Nelson Cruikshank, special adviser to President Carter and chair of the Federal Council on Aging. A special feature of the day will be regional hospitality centers where senior citizens who travel to Lansing will be able to meet with their legislators, area agency representatives and service providers. The Centers are being sponsored by Area Agencies on Aging and will feature booths and displays by local agencies providing services for older persons.

Also included in the program will be a box lunch, a nationally known UAW exercise team, the Genesee County Senior Citizens Orchestra, several senior chorale groups and a Senior Power Day song.

The event, which is always colorful, is expected to be more so this year. Each region of the state has been assigned a color with pink designated for this area. "If you're going to Senior Power Day, try to wear or carry something pink!"

Although other states have statewide senior citizen events, Michigan's Senior Power Day is unique in that it is planned and developed entirely by senior citizens themselves, with every statewide senior group participating.

Sponsors include AARP, AFL-CIO Retirees, Mich. Assn. of Retired Personnel, Mich. Council of Senior Citizens, Mich. Senior Advocates Council, Mich. Society of Gerontology, Mid-Mich. Seniors Legislative Committee, NRTA, the State Advisory Council on Aging, the State Commission on Aging, State Employees Retirees Assn., Teamsters Retirees and UAW Retired Workers.

Senior Power Day began 6 years ago in Lansing as a local event. Since then it has developed into a statewide "happening" which has filled the Lansing Civic Center to capacity for the past three years.

PAR FOR THE COURSE—The work bee held at the clubhouse on Saturday, April 26 was very successful. The outside of the clubhouse received a new coat of paint with the exception of a small part due to miscalculations on the amount of paint. There was some ground work done and an old tree removed from next to number 5 green. All of the grounds and fairways are taking on a new look with a new privet hedge planted on the back of the new number 2 tee and ground plantings around the clubhouse. Everything is looking great! Summer Special Olympics at West Branch Saturday, May 10

Between 150 and 200 Special Olympians from northern mid-Michigan will travel to Ogemaw Heights High School near West Branch to compete in the Area IV Summer Special Olympics. The event, which will be held Saturday, May 10, will see handicapped athletes from 8 years old to eighty compete in a variety of individual and team sports. All of the special education programs and facilities within Crawford, Ogemaw, Roscommon, and Oscoda counties have been invited to send participants.

The Summer Olympics remains the largest single day event held within Area IV. The day will be kicked off with opening ceremonies at 10 a.m. The parade of athletes will be accompanied by a color guard and the Ogemaw Heights Band. Following the reciting of the Olympic Oath and the presentation of the Olympic Torch, the competition will begin.

Individual competition will be held in running events, standing broad jump, high jump, softball and frisbee throw, swimming, gymnastics, badminton and horseshoes. Team competition will include running relays and a tug of war. Athletes competing in Special Olympics events are paired in heats according to preliminary times which were received prior to the event. In this way each athlete is given a chance to compete against others of his or her own ability. Ribbons will be awarded to each first, second and third place finisher. Participant ribbons will be awarded to each athlete.

The goal of the Area IV Summer Special Olympics is to promote personal growth and the building of a positive self image through successful sports competition. Along the way to this ultimate goal, the athletes are encouraged to become aware of physical fitness and learn skills which they can use in life long recreational activities.

For 25 of the local athletes the West Branch event will not be the end of this spring's competition. These athletes will travel to CMU in Mt. Pleasant for the Michigan Summer Special Olympics in early June. There they will join with 3,000 other Special Olympians from around Michigan for three days of friendly competition.

Let the state take over the courts

RICHARD MILLIMAN

USUALLY, The Almanack lines up in opposition to a bigger government taking over operations of a smaller government; I adopt the general premise that the closer government is to the taxpayers, the better government we're likely to have.

I part company with this general idea, however, in the matter of financing the court systems of Michigan, and I'm pleased to see the Hon. Mary Coleman taking up the battle.

By virtue of her post as chief justice of the Michigan supreme court, she is chief administrative officer of the court system in Michigan, and she's all for the plan.

Justice Coleman is picking up right where the late Thomas M. Kavanagh left off; when Kavanagh was chief justice a few years back, state financing of local courts was a primary goal for him. Of course, it hasn't happened yet, but someday it will, and both chief justices, Kavanagh and Coleman, can help take credit for the change when it finally does come.

JUSTICE COLEMAN sounded the theme once more in her annual "State of the Judiciary Report" to the Michigan Legislature earlier this year. In general, she claims that counties cannot continue to pay for the circuit, district and probate court systems because of dwindling state resources, and increasing state-imposed costs.

"The limited financial resources of the counties make it imperative to eliminate...the steeply rising expenses of paying for a state imposed court system," she told the lawmakers.

Only the state has the resources to finance the new space, enough judges and growing paperwork required to handle a swelling judicial caseload, Justice Coleman said.

"In time," she continued, "the counties are, almost in unison, going to hammer at the legislative doors demanding relief, and in all probability, receive it."

SHE'S RIGHT. Counties are going to run short on money long before the state will—or at least, counties will be fenced in more quickly and more completely by higher spending demands and limited revenue sources.

The other side of the coin of state financing is state control; whoever pays the orchestra leader decides what sort of music will be played. This is true in the private sector and government alike.

But in court financing, there is relatively little for counties to lose. In most instance, the courts are already responsive to the state rather than to the local government for their directions.

STATE LAW spells out how courts will operate, what paperwork will be submitted, how many judges will be provided, and even how much the judges will be paid. The state does permit counties to add to the basic state-established salaries of judges, which provides a variance of salaries.

There is something to be said for uniformity, both of judicial compensation and qualifications. Total state funding of the courts would help this along.

All in all, the state should pay for the court system. We wish Justice Coleman well in her campaign. As she noted in her address to the legislature, the idea has been under consideration for more than a decade. It's an idea whose time has come.

If not now, when?

Persons interested in hunting morels are invited to attend the second annual mushroom hunt in Lovells. It will take place at the peak of the morel season and the village square will be the gathering place. Participants are urged to bring their own non-plastic containers (plastic tends to make mushrooms deteriorate.) More details will appear at a later date.

responsiveness and participation of the people who make up the community.

Each citizen has an individual responsibility to community health. The most basic is safeguarding personal health, maintaining a healthy lifestyle, and setting a healthy example for others. The individual also has a responsibility for being informed about the health services available and for making efficient and effective use of them.

For those who want more direct involvement, opportunities exist as volunteers and part-time workers in hospitals and other health organizations. Individuals also can participate actively in hospital governing bodies, local health systems agencies, and other areas of health leadership.

The "we" in "We're America's Health Team" isn't just limited to hospitals and health professionals. It encompasses everyone. Meeting our community's health needs takes teamwork in the broadest sense. It's a responsibility to be shouldered by all.

National Reye's Syndrome Foundation

by Lillian Wolf-Director

It has been suggested to me that since Reye's is still a relatively unknown disease, I write some articles on RS for general public knowledge. First of all, anything I write is not my personal opinion but general knowledge given by the Doctors and staff of the Foundation.

We are mainly made up of parents whose children have been affected by Reye's, but now are growing to concerned parents throughout the U.S. and other countries. Our goals are mainly awareness of parents and physicians especially in high incidence areas; to encourage the involvement of the Federal Government in supporting RS research; to encourage coordination of efforts of various centers in development of treatment and prevention; to establish RS as a "Reportable Disease" in every state; to sponsor a multi-center study of recognized authorities on RS; to establish a position at the center for disease control to review data on RS patients; and to raise funds for research into cause, prevention and treatment of Reye's Syndrome.

Since 1976, the Foundation has created much awareness of this disease. Since that time it has also brought national attention to the disease through the National Institute of Health, The Center for Disease Control, The U.S. Congress, and State Legislatures. The efforts of the officers and members of the Foundation have led to a Reye's Symposium bringing all investigators up to date on the status of studies on RS. It is strongly felt that this relatively new disease can and must be conquered, just as polio was a few years ago.

My next insert will be mainly to explain what RS is.

Senior Citizen Month
 May, 1980

WHEREAS: Senior Citizens Month, May 1 to 31st provides us an appropriate opportunity to recognize the many contributions which older citizens have made to their City, State and Nation.

WHEREAS: The contributions of older citizens in the development of our society are all too often only passively acknowledged. More importantly, the continuing achievement of large numbers of older citizens through participation in volunteer programs, such as foster grandparents and the retired senior volunteer program, and incontinuing professional and employment capacities, go largely unnoticed by vast segments of our society. However, through these contributions many older citizens significantly improve the life opportunities of many disadvantaged members of our society.

WHEREAS: This is a time to recognize the potential of the older citizen both in building our society and in maintaining it.

WHEREAS: It is time, too, for state and local government and private citizens to recognize the unique needs of many of our friends, neighbors and relatives, and develop services which are sensitized to those needs to better enhance the lives of the over 60 years of age members of our community.

Therefore, I, Gordon Thompson, Mayor of the City of Grayling, urge every citizen to join in the observance of Senior Citizens' Month through cooperative community action and to resolve to pay full recognition to our older citizens.

Viking Nine Off To Slow Start

By Joe Schrader

The GHS baseball team kicked off the 1980 season last week with a pair of twinbills against conference foes, splitting with Cheboygan Monday at home and dropping both ends of a doubleheader Friday on the Gaylord diamond. A pair of scheduled games against Onaway Wednesday was postponed because of rain.

"We've got to stop spotting them early runs and start getting some key hits of our own," Coach Fred Wolcott lamented after watching the Vikings lose the second half of a doubleheader against Gaylord, 7-4. The Blue Devils earlier outlasted the Vikings 7-5 in the opener. In both contests, the Vikings gave up early leads and had to battle from behind to keep the scores respectable.

The Vikes salvaged a split with Cheboygan Monday, clubbing the Chiefs 9-1 in the nightcap after Cheboygan claimed a 6-1 win behind a nifty performance by Chief pitcher LaLonde who allowed only one hit in going the distance.

In the Viking season opener against the Chiefs, Bill Lucksted started on the mound for Grayling but gave way to reliever Brad Trenary in the first inning. Trenary held the Chiefs in check on five hits the rest of the way, but three unearned runs the first two innings proved to be all Cheboygan needed.

Jerry Lucksted fired a strong 2-hitter to record the win in the nightcap as the Vike hitters poked out eight hits in the 9-1 outing. Bill Lucksted and John Juntilla both went 2 for 3 with George Bindschattel, Ted Methner, Trenary and Jack Money all chipping in with a hit apiece.

"Brad only threw one bad pitch all game," Wolcott said about Trenary's pitching against Gaylord in the 7-5 loss. That 2nd inning pitch Blue Devil Eric Kehler drilled over the fence in left-center, a two-run poke that gave Gaylord a 5-0 lead after scoring three unearned runs in the Historical Society, and the other tree will be planted Sunday at the Michelson Memorial Church following the 11:00 Service.

As the trees grow and mature, it is hoped that the community and the Church will remember the Centennial Year of the Michelson Memorial Church, and the heritage of faithful service to the community by the members of the congregation across the years.

The Michelson Memorial United Methodist Church was organized on December 20, 1879 and the first minister was appointed to the Church in September 1880. Many events have been planned by the Heritage Committee for the ensuing months with the main Centennial Celebration scheduled for the week-end of September 7th & 8th. Cal Knowles is the chairman of the Heritage Committee. The theme for the Centennial is "A Vision For the Future-Thru a Century of Faithful Service."

Millage

80, but it should be pointed out the figure includes state and federal program revenues plus athletic program income. These sources of revenue had not been previously included in budget figures, said Paul Lerg, Asst. School Superintendent. This represents a budget inclusion this year of almost $187,000, he said.

Another influential factor this year is the fact the schools have fallen out of formula and no longer qualify for state aid. Dr. Diedrich explained. While this has its advantages such as holding tax dollars here in the district, the bottom line is that local schools are no longer eligible to receive aid next year which this year amounted to $168,315. "The first year out of formula is usually rough," Diedrich remarked, "hopefully the area's economic climate will improve for next year."

Other variables that are bound to affect final budget figures include:

—Any change in school enrollment figures for 1980-81.

—A change in tax assessment figures.

—Alternation of federal programs such as Title I.

—Changes in state school programs.

Last year the board "went to the well" three times before gaining a millage O.K. by the voters for school operation. The first proposal in June calling for a 3.25 mill increase to 18.90 mills was defeated and it failed again in August. But in October, a 2.25 mill increase to the current 17.90 mill level was passed although a separate proposal to add an additional mill was turned down.

Other Board matters:

—A request for an extension of time to June 16th for the Middle School Advisory Committee's recommendation was approved.

—The Board approved the resolution for election of Board members, determining the tax limitation rate, Board of Election inspectors and notice of annual and election inspection.

—The board approved a motion that the minimum bid for the 1979-80 Building Trades Class House be set at $52,000.

GHS Girls Cop 2nd in Rudyard Meet

By Joe Schrader

The GHS Girl's Track squad romped to a second place finish last Saturday at the Rudyard Invitational Track Meet, finishing only behind Class A Sault Ste. Marie in a meet featuring competition from nine turing competition from nine other northern Michigan schools. "We did extremely well," said Coach Marilee Cheney afterward, "the girls ran some of the best times of the year so far."

The Soo finished with 103 points, Grayling piled up 84 for second and St. Ignace raced in to third spot with 73.

Double winner for the Vikings was Beth Jones, who copped the half mile with her best time of the season, 2:26, finished second in the mile and came back to win the 2-mile event. The mile relay squad, captained and anchored by Jill Headlee, posted its best time this year, 4:23, to win the event along with teammates Karen Hanson, Diane Lee and Jean Stevens. Headlee also anchored the 880-yd. run, and with Diane Lee, Shelly Peterson and Lisa Radebaugh, the squad was clocked in 1:53, good for second place in the meet.

Lisa Radebaugh placed second in the 110-yd. hurdles, Karen Hanson copped second in the 220-yd. hurdles and Jean Stevens finished second in the 440-yarder. Radebaugh also finished 4th in the long jump and sixth in the 220-yd run. Hanson took a third in the discus toss, Diane Lee placed 5th and 6th in the 110-yd. and 220-yd. hurdles respectively, and Diane Savallisch finished fifth in the shot put.

"We're really starting to jell now," remarked Coach Cheney who was pleased with the team's overall performance on Saturday, "the girls are working hard and looking forward to the conference meet in Petoskey May 22nd." She tabbed Cheboygan the "team to beat" this year in league competition.

Friday the girls finished 4th in the Rogers City Relays and the team was awaiting validation of the final results of the meet, expected sometime this week.

In a meet that turned out to be more dual than triangular, the Viking girls eked out a narrow victory over Petoskey, 72-69½, while Charlevoix trailed with 14½ points. The out-of-town matchup between the conference rivals was held Monday, April 28th and the win left Grayling's record against league foes still unblemished, a perfect 3-0.

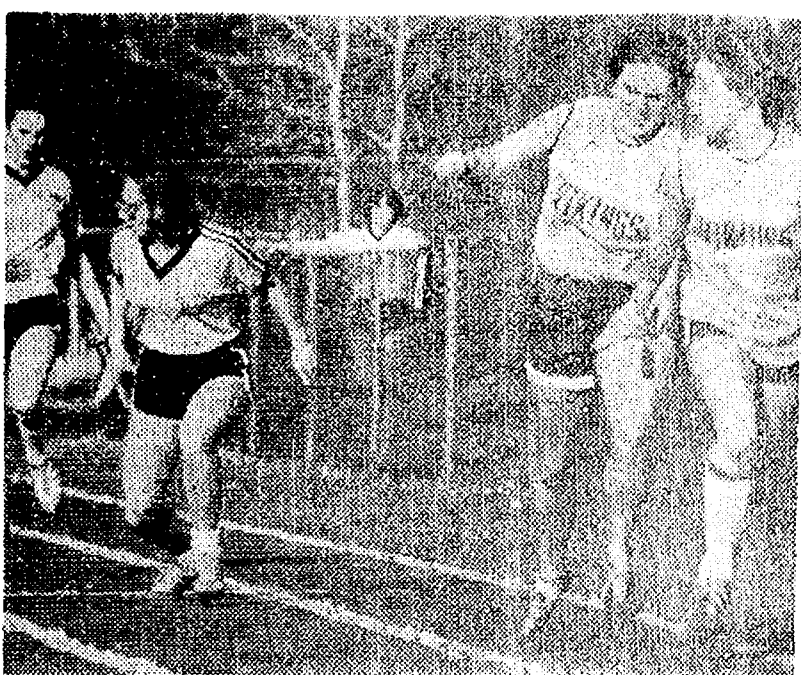

Coach Marilee Cheney credited determination and team spirit for producing the victory. "The girls all pulled together and gave their best individual efforts on behalf of the team," she said, "and the teamwork made the difference."

Lone double winner for the Vikes was Beth Jones who won the mile and two mile events. Lisa Radebaugh copped the 110-yd. hurdles, Jean Stevens outran the field in the 440-yarder and Grayling's 880-yd. and mile relay teams posted victories in both races.

Second place finishes were posted by Diane Savallisch (discus), Lisa Radebaugh (long jump), Jean Stevens (high jump), Diane Lee (110 and 220-yd hurdles), Beth Jones (half mile), along with Grayling's 440-yd. relay team.

Diane Lee took a third in the high jump event and Jean Stevens posted a second place finish in the 220-yd. hurdles. Others scoring for the Vikes were Shelly Peterson and Celina Eshenroder, who finished fourth in the 220-yd. and 2-mile contests.

Thursday the girls traveled to Roscommon to face the Bucks

In non-conference action and came home with a crunching 98-26 win over their arch-rival opponents. Lisa Radebaugh, Shelly Peterson and Beth Jones all posted double wins in the meet that saw the Vikes dominate the action by winning fourteen of fifteen events. Lisa won the long jump and 110-yd. hurdles, Beth the mile and 2-mile distance runs. Shelly copped the shorter speed events, winning the 100-yd. dash and 220-yd. runs. Other individual winners included Diane Savallisch (shot put), Karen Hanson (discus), Jean Stevens (440-yd.), Diane Lee (220-yd. hurdles) and Joan Stevens (880-yd.). Jill Headlee, Joyce Stevens, Shelly Peterson and Lisa Radebaugh combined to win the 440-yd. relays. Karen Hanson replaced Joyce Stevens in the 880-yd. relay and with the other three copped the event. Headlee and Hanson teamed with Diane Lee and Jean Stevens to make it a clean sweep by winning the mile relay contest.

Other second place finishers were Jill Headlee (long jump), Diane Lee (110 yd. hurdles), Brenda Robinson (88-yd. and mile runs) and Joyce Stevens (220-yd.). Also winning points for 3rd place finishes were Diane Savallisch (discus), Jean Stevens (220-yd hurdles), Diane Lee (high jump), Joyce Stevens (110-yd dash and long jump), Celina Eshenroder (2-mile) and Wendy Savallisch (440-yd.)

The squad faces another busy schedule this week with three meets, the last this Saturday when they travel to compete in the Pine River Invitational.

Lawn and Garden Care

By Jim Smith

What To Do With Sandy Soil?

Crawford County topsoil, better known as sand, has been a problem for some people, but it need not be. The plus side of the sand is that it drains well, excess rains soon disappear and you don't have that mud and gumbo to contend with. What is needed is to add mulch which can be done in many ways. Working in about 2 to 3" of mulch in the soil, planting deep (where the moisture is), lister rows when planting a garden, and adding a good all purpose garden fertilizer occasionally will give you excellent results.

Mulch can be of many factors, your compost pile, old sawdust (this must be at least three years old), and then the easier method of adding peat.

There are a variety of peat products on the market and it is important that you know the difference for your type of soil.

MOSS PEAT: is that type which has been formed principally from sphagnum, hypnum, and other mosses. Moss peat, often called "peat moss" is derived mostly from sphagnum moss and is the least decomposed of the various peat types. It is light tan to brown in color, light weight, porous, high in moisture-holding capacity, high in acidity, and low in nitrogen. Hypnum moss peat is a darker-brown color, has low acidity, and possess physical characteristics similar to reed-sedge peat. Moss peats having high acidity are slowly decomposed. On the other hand, after liming, exposure to air, & incorporation in soil they decompose at moderate rates because of the high cellulose content. Sphagnum moss is the young residue or live portion of the plant often called "top moss" and should not be confused with moss peat which has aged and partially decomposed. Sphagnum moss (top moss) is marketed for shipping tender plants and for starting room cuttings, seedlings and also for mulching.

REED SEDGE PEAT, is formed principally from reeds, sedges, marsh grasses, cattails and other associated swamp plants. The peats of this type found on the market differ considerably in the degree of decomposition and acidity. Fibrous, partially decomposed peats are brown to reddish brown in color. More decomposed peats are darker in color. The moisture-retention capacity and the nitrogen content are of medium range.

PEAT HUMUS. Peat that is of an advanced stage of decomposition and in which the original plant remains are not identifiable is called "peat humus." It is usually derived from reed-sedge or hypnum moss peat. Peat humus is dark brown to black in color, has low moisture-retention capacity, and a medium to high nitrogen content. This type has a high amount of lignin material which is more resistant to decomposition than the moss and reed-sedge peats.

When Souls Communicate

When souls communicate — it's like prayer. There may never be a word spoken . . . just a sigh, a wish, a hope, a longing. A child trying to express some simple feeling to its Mother. Mother trying to express her devotion to her child.

All prayer is founded on the idea that God loves us and cares about the things that affect us. Jesus taught us to pray "Our Father . . ." He wanted men to see God's love on the parental level.

When you feel the need to pray, reach out with your heart to God. You may not be able to find words. Yet He hears, He understands those deep feelings we find hard to express.

In church our efforts to communicate with Him are strengthened by the fact that many others are praying with us. They need Him just as much as we do. And we need their longings, their hopes and wishes and feelings to help us express our own. Join us in prayer at your local church or synagogue.
